

Department of Crop and Soil Sciences

Name	Eligibility	Award
Undergraduate - Administered directly by Donor
J. Fielding Reid Georgia Plant Food Educational Society	Jr. or Sr. majoring in Crop Science; based on academic performance, need, extra curricular activities and character - Student application and supporting documentation required - GPFES selects student. See http://www.georgiaplantfood.org/ for details. - June 15 deadline	$2,000 tuition award for 2 semesters Award is made directly to Student by GPFES
J. Fielding Reid Georgia Plant Food Educational Society	Jr. or Sr. majoring in Crop Science; based on academic performance, need, extra curricular activities and character - Student application and supporting documentation required - GPFES selects student. See http://www.georgiaplantfood.org/ for details. - June 15 deadline	$2,000 tuition award for 2 semesters Award is made directly to Student by GPFES
Southern Seedmen's Association Georgia Seedsmen's Association	Jr. or Sr. majoring in Crop Science; based on academic performance, need, extra curricular activities and character- Priority is given to a student who has family members in the Southern Seedmen's Association	$2,000 - divided between 2 semesters
Roy C. Jones Georgia Seedsmen's Association	Jr. or Sr. majoring in Crop Science; based on academic performance, need, extra curricular activities and character- Dept. suggests recipient to sponsor. Priority is given to a student who has family members in the Southern Seedmen's Associations	$2,000 - divided between 2 semesters
Georgia Association of Conservation District Supervisors Scholarship	Any student from Georgia enrolled at any accredited college, school or university in the U.S., majoring or intending to major in a soil and water conservation related area. Student must maintain 2.75 GPA and have a financial need. Deadline for applications August 15. See www.gacds.org/gacds-scholarship.php for details and application	$1,000 - divided between Fall and Spring semester
Georgia Association of Conservation District Supervisors Ladies Auxillary Scholarship	Guidelines are currently being updated www.gacds.org/gacds-aux-scholarship.php

Undergraduate - Administered by Department
Bayer Environmental Sciences
J. Frank McGill "Up with Peanuts" J. Frank McGill	Rising Jr. or Sr.; priority given to individuals involved in Peanut Industry - Selected by committee	$2,000 - divided between 2 semesters; endowed scholarship; check is picked up from Burser's Office.
Georgia State Golf Association	- Dept. suggests recipient to sponsor	Karnok
Georgia Golf Course Builders Assoc.	CAES or Forestry students who are interested in a career in Golf Course Construction, Design and/or Product Related Development	$1,000 - divided over two semesters
Crop and Soil Sciences International	Crop and Soil Science major student attending one of CRSS Study Abroad Programs (Parrott, West and Vencill to set criteria)	Amount and number available to be determined annually
Dr. Attie A. Fleming	Undergraduate student majoring in the field of crop/plant sciences. Based on merit and financial need. - Selected by committee	$1,000 - divided between 2 semesters
Graduate Scholarships
Thomas Nathan Crabb	Based on financial need	Determined annually
Wm Colville Student Support Fund	To support graduate student travel to a national meeting	$400- number of awards given determined annually
Glenn and Helen Burton Feeding the Hungry	Ph.D. student holding an assistantship whose research involves Crop Breeding for food or feed	determined annually
George Arthur Crabb Graduate Fellowship	Graduate Student who was in Alpha Zeta as an undergraduate	$2,500/year for 2 years
Frederick B. And Marjorie W. Smith Scholarship in Soil Science	Undergraduate and graduate majoring in soil sciences	determined annually